LEARNING TOGETHER AT HOME: WEEK 8

It's week 8! This week's activities are all based on the story 'Flock: A Tree Keepers Adventure' by Northumberland author Gemma Koomen.

Share the story 'Flock: A Tree Keepers Adventure'. Click here to watch a video of the story being read by the author on the Hexham Book Festival's Story Space

Collect your own treasures and make a special box to keep them in. Tell your grown up why your treasures are special to you.

What could you do to care for your environment like the Tree Keepers do? Maybe you could go on a litter pick in your local area? Be sure to wear gloves and wash your hands!

Click here and listen to Amy singing a song about a tree in the garden. Join in and sing with Amy if you can.

Find a really big tree. Lie underneath and see what it looks like from below. What sounds can you hear? Can you see anything living on it?

Click here to see Eve's house for a Tree Keeper. Can you make one too?

Share other books on Hexham Book Festival's Story Space. There's a new one added at 10am each day!
